Code of Ethics

The Canadian School of Natural Nutrition has as its mission the education of the individual in the principles of holistic health care and the principles of natural nutrition, to further the well-being of people and the healing of planet Earth. To this end, a graduate of CSNN as a Registered Holistic Nutritionist (RHN) agrees to:

1. Maintain an interest in the well-being of all human beings, regardless of colour, creed or nationality, and in the care of planet Earth.
2. Respect the right of his/her client as an individual in all respects, as to personal tastes, morals and social values.
3. Be non-judgmental as to the life values and experience of the client.
4. Treat the client under all circumstances with due consideration for the dignity of the individual.
5. Respect the confidential nature of his/her relationship with the client to protect the confidentiality of assessments and recorded documents.
6. Guide and counsel his/her client in the best way to achieve optimal health through natural nutrition, but always respect the right and need for the client to make the final decision in all wellness plans.
7. Teach the client to accept responsibility for his/her health, choices and actions.
8. Accept full responsibility for the consequences of his/her own acts.
9. Provide professional services only in those areas in which she/he has competence and training.
10. Recognize the need to work co-operatively with other disciplines, holistic or allopathic, to best serve the client's need, respecting the unique contribution of each discipline.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND DISCLOSURE

Absolutely no part of the content in the copyrighted publications, course materials or teacher notes may be photocopied or adapted for teaching purposes or shared with anyone not taking the CSNN program. Breach of these restrictions will result in legal action.

I certify that I have read and understood the items outlined on the application form and confidentiality policy. I have read all of the course descriptions and acknowledge that all courses must be taken to qualify for the RHN diploma. Also, I understand that I am expected to follow the Code of Ethics outlined above.
